Heading Down the Home Stretch

Now I'm not much of a horse racing fan. I can tell you that this year's winner of the Kentucky Derby was Always Dreaming, but only because it was run just a couple of weekends ago (and I looked it up). But even with my limited knowledge, I know how hard those horses work down the home stretch. With jockey pushing them to their limit, they give all they have, striding for the finish line and that hope for victory.

As we move into the latter half of May and our "home stretch" of the 2016-2017 school year, we find ourselves reminding our students of the need to stride hard all the way to that finish line, in our case, June 16th. Spring fever hits one and all. Outdoor activities beckon students (and teachers) and threaten to hamper their school work. It would be a whole lot easier just to give in and kind of coast at the end.

As Jesus came to the end of his earthly life, He certainly had to stride out. The job His Father in Heaven had given Him to do did not allow Him an easy finish. His arrest, trial, crucifixion and all the suffering and pain that accompanied these put Him to the ultimate test. We all know the results. He finished that "race" for us and won our salvation. His home stretch brought us Home!

So, as we head down our school year's home stretch, remind your children of the need to continue their hard work right up to the end. The going can get tough in these final weeks and your proper attitude and support will really help to put a great ending on a great school year!

Prayers Requested For Mrs. Brandt

Mrs. Charlotte Brandt, our first grade teacher, while with her family on a trip to Kansas City, MO to celebrate her daughter's college graduation, suffered a detached retina. She had surgery last Friday and her recuperation is in progress. Rest and doctor's examinations are necessary for the remainder of this week and into the next. She may be able to begin her homeward journey by the middle of next week, but will not be able to fly back due to cabin pressure in the plane. She may be able to return to her teaching duties by the end of the month. Please keep her in your prayers – for good care from the physicians and her family, for a speedy and complete healing of the eye and for a safe trip back to Oregon.

Without Students

Classrooms Traveling This Week:

Our Sixth Graders are enjoying Outdoor School as I write this article. They are at Westwind Camp near Lincoln City where they are studying Estuaries, Forests and Beaches in the great outdoors of Oregon. They will return Friday with stories to tell, no doubt.

The Fifth Grade will be visiting OMSI Thursday afternoon for an "OMSI Overnight". They will leave after school Thursday and while at OMSI will tour the submarine U.S.S. Blueback, visit the Turbine Room, see an IMAX movie and much more. They will return Friday morning by 10:00 am. but will head right home for some well-needed rest.

Our Fourth Grade will venture to Salem on Friday to visit the State Capitol Building and the Mission Mill Museum. They will leave first thing in the morning and return by the end of the school day.

Limerick Day Contest Winner

Last Friday was National Limerick Day. Mrs. Lam challenged students to write their own limerick and submit it for a school contest. Quite a number of limericks were entered and the winning one was written by fifth grader Riley Reinikka. Here it is reprinted (with permission) for your reading pleasure:

"The Rain"

*I love to dance in the wonderful rain.
But sometimes it can be a pain.
Little droplets on my head,
sometimes as hard as lead.
I watch the rain through a window pane.*
